

GASPPO QUICK FACTS SHEET

Who are we?

Global Association of Small Professional Practice Owners (GASPPO) is an elite community of dynamic, empowering and exceptional small professional practice owners, who connect and collaborate for mutual benefit, and also inspire, champion and support each other to continuously excel in business and in life. GASPPO is also where members come to access business growth and personal development strategies, resources, opportunities and support from peers, mentors and experts. Our success as an association, and exceeding the expectations of our members, go hand-in-hand as our number one priority.

What do we do?

We exclusively help small professional practice owners and their practices to keep thriving. GASPPO serves as a partner, vehicle and resource that enables members to continuously maximize their personal potential, and take their business to the next level, without sacrificing their values. Everything we offer our members revolves around helping them access the education, connections, resources and support they need to:

1. Consistently attract and retain clients, and have a practice that enables them to perpetually live a life of passion, profit, prosperity and purpose
2. Continuously evolve and progress personally, in order to be the kind of leader and visionary required to take their practice to the next level
3. Be able to use their practice as a channel for creating their own definition of personal freedom, and remaining in that space

How do we help our members?

We focus on building a dynamic community of like-minded peers, mentors and experts, who provide the strategies, resources, opportunities, camaraderie and support needed by our members for business growth and personal development.

Through member privileges such as training clinics, audio series, publications, networking forums, coaching sessions and many more, which all have the single purpose of delivering valuable results, our members are equipped and empowered to meet their objectives from a business and personal perspective.

The rewards of a GASPPO membership come in different experiences such as increased profits and revenue, lifelong friendships, referrals, strategic alliances, more new clients, increased personal confidence, more productivity, better time management, increased visibility, mindset shifts, quantum leaps etc. Each member's experience will be somewhat different because it depends on their business objectives and personal goals, as well as how they apply themselves.

Who do we serve specifically?

We serve small professional practice owners and their practices. Our members own small practices within traditional professional sectors such as Law, Accounting, Consulting, Dental, Chiropractic, other Health (oral, physical and mental), Financial Planning and similar sectors. Membership is selective, based on business experience and business revenue.
